

CouRAGEus: a service for Young Women and Girls

Advocacy and Support for YWG with learning disabilities, autism or both experiencing gender-based violence.

CouRAGEus

As part of the ISVA service, our Young Women's Specialist Advocate offers advocacy and support to young women 13-25 who have experienced any form of gender-based violence.

THE ONE TO ONE SERVICE OFFERS

- Advocacy - giving YWG with learning disabilities, autism or both a voice, and working on their behalf.
- Representation - ensuring their rights and views are heard.
- Emotional support - offering the opportunity to talk about the emotional impact of their experiences.
- Enhance resilience - learn about safety planning, increase of confidence and self-esteem.

ABOUT RESPOND

Respond works with children and adults with learning disabilities who have experienced abuse or trauma, as well as those who have abused others, through psychotherapy, advocacy, campaigning and other support.
